DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
  - I. Claims 1-9, drawn to an improved structure of an ejector pump, classified in class 417, subclass 198.
  - II. Claim 10, drawn to a fuel cell system comprising an improved structure of an ejector pump without a heater, classified in class 429, subclass 34.
  - III. Claim 11, drawn to a fuel cell system comprising an improved structure of an ejector pump with a heater, classified in class 429, subclass 34.

2. Inventions II,III and I are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because combination of a fuel cell system and an ejector pump of groups II and III does not necessitate the use of an ejector pump of group I. The ejector pump of group I does not require the inclusion of a fuel cell system for patentability. Additionally, ejector pumps unrelated to group I may be used in combinations II and III. The ejector pump of group I may be used independently of groups II and III, and it can have utility in other subcombinations. The subcombination has separate utility such as a pump in automotive or industrial fluid systems.

Art Unit: 3709

The examiner has required restriction between combination and subcombination inventions. Where applicant elects a subcombination, and claims thereto are subsequently found allowable, any claim(s) depending from or otherwise requiring all the limitations of the allowable subcombination will be examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. See MPEP § 821.04(a). Applicant is advised that if any claim presented in a continuation or divisional application is anticipated by, or includes all the limitations of, a claim that is allowable in the present application, such claim may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions require a different field of search (see MPEP § 808.02), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

During a telephone conversation with Mr. Aaron Webb on May 10, 2007, a provisional election was made without traverse to prosecute the invention of group I, claims 1-9. Affirmation of this election must be made by applicant in replying to this Office action. Claims 10 and 11 are withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

Art Unit: 3709

3. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species:

A. Figures 1-4 and 7, drawn to an ejector pump without a heater.

B. Figures 1 and 5-7, drawn to an ejector pump with a heater.

. The species are independent or distinct because species A does not require an ejector pump comprising a heater that is disclosed by species B. Species B is patentably distinct from Species A since adding a heater to an ejector pump is not an obvious variant of Species A.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claim 1 is generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species.

MPEP § 809.02(a).

Art Unit: 3709

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions require a different field of search (see MPEP § 808.02), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.
